Michael,

Thanks very much for the software, particularly your demo, which we thought was brilliant - the best ST demo yet!! I'm very sorry for the huge delay replying. I've been busy with my exams amongst other things, so I haven't had much time for computing.

Enclosed are 12 disks with our latest Doc Disk and some new demos. Since I haven't seen your list for quite awhile, I wasn't sure what to send, so I hope I've sent some you didn't have. I've also enclosed a list of my software and a separate list of my demos for you on one of the disks.

I'm glad you liked our game - we are currently working on two new games - an arcade game for Mandarin Software (unless we can find someone better to do it) and a strategy / arcade game which SSI will hopefully be marketing. I'll let you know more about them as they develop further.

Good luck with your disk magazine - I'm sure it will be great and I would like to contribute a few articles. I'll put a few together when I get some more time and I'll send them to you next time I write.

Well, things are certainly changing here at SEWER H.Q. Two of our members, MAX HEADROOM and SEWER PORN, have just quit the group, leaving us with 4 members, only 3 of which are active :- myself (coding, sand, a-little-bit-of-everything, etc., etc.), SEWER POSSUM (graphics) and AXELSOFT (graphics). As a result, progress on our mega-demo has been halted while we work out what we're doing, but it should start again when I'm on holidays. Between study, karate and an unsympathetic girlfriend, I don't find much free time (or desire) to spend the long hours coding I used to.

Anyway, we (SEWER SOFTWARE) are forming an alliance with the Pompey Pirates and The Medway Boys very soon, so maybe we'll put out a joint demo instead. The new group will be called The Corporation, but we'll still be using our own names as well (e.g. SEWER SOFTWARE of THE CORPORATION). Is there any chance that you (the allmighty Lost Boys - grovel, sniff, lick, slurp !!) would be interested in joining with us ?? At the moment, it appears that The Pompey Pirates and The Medway Boys aren't very interested in doing joint projects, but I'm sure if you joined as well we could do a brilliant mega-demo between us !! Perhaps even Digital Insanity would consider joining as well, seeing they've already been working with you (ie. contributing screens for Mindbomb).

Well, 'nuff said. I sincerely hope you'll consider (and agree to) joining with us to make THE CORPORATION the best and most talented alliance of groups yet !! Enjoy the software, and I hope to hear from you soon.

Best Wishes,

(SEWER RAT)

P.S. Although my finances are somewhat lacking, I've managed to buy a few new blank tapes, so I've finally included a couple of albums by The Angels, including their new album 'Beyond Salvation'. I hope you enjoy them and if you want any more, just let me know, as I have the other 9 albums of theirs. Don't bother sending anything in return - I've got more new music than I can listen to at the moment, so consider it a generous gift from an extremely generous and ever so nice Aussie (but then again, all Australians are friendly - G'day mate; throw another shrimp on the barbie; etc. - and other assorted Australian sayings !!).

Unfortunately, since buying those blank tapes, I've found myself in more financial troubles. About 5 hours ago, on the way home from karate training, a young plg (cop; policeman; bobby (as you pommies would say (?)) - 'alho 'alho 'alho !!) pulled me over for speeding. It seems I was driving at 89 km/h in a 60 km/h speed zone, so I now have 60 days to pay a fine of $134 (f.60) - fuck !!

Well, I must go now, so until next time,
..... goodbye (don't you hate ordinary and logical endings to letters ?).

P.P.S. I'm having troubles with my stereo system, so I've only managed to enclose one tape for you. I'll try and send more next time.
