Hi there...

First, I must congratulate you for the best (in my opinion) disk-
-magazines ever be written. Yes, it beats ST News...
I looked everyday in my mailbox, if the 3rd issue are there but so far it isn't...snief... (or you got released it and I didn't get it yet.. (this is one reason why I write you, but this later))

Ok, I send with this letter (of bad english) a disk, where I'am ask you to copy on it the newest (no, not the maggie) pd-list.
YEAH...I'am very expectate (I have this word from an dictionary, didn't know if it means what I want to say) what you have in your pd-list...So please copy it...

But STOP ! Before you do dis, please look on the disc...
It contents a DEMO done by me (not me from tex, me Mr.Bond)!!!
Yes, I'am a Demowriter too...But, if you have now a great award
then calm down, baby...It's a screen I coded far a lotsa time.
It contents only scrolling (slow), ball and logo bumping, palette animations (oh noooo), lower-border and a musex I ripped out anywhere...You see ? The joke is that I redrewed(?) me as I draw the title and I recognized it after the release...So shame on me !!! Now I haven't any delight to bug it....but who cares ???

Please write me your opinion (please no more than 3 letters negative critics - coz I will be depressed than...) when you send back the pd-list...

But now I am working at my 2nd demo which will be much better than this shit. I learned very much !...It's not real my 1st and 2nd screen cauz I do a lota time so far, a few cracks with little intro-screens...

I think it's boring for you to read this, but anyway I continue...

Yesterday I got a tel-call from a software company to do a st-
-conversion from a strategic/action game...puuhhh...I don't know if I am able to do dis, but perhaps I will try it...

Anyway, I have one more ask: Is there one place free for me in your section 'contacts' ? If the answer is yes, then I would ask you to add me there ! If not, perhaps in the next issue ?
I hope that there will be a next one. In this fact please don't wait for the next issue to send back my disc..
But if there is a place free then please write this address:
